placing control of the movement to a large extent in the hands of the military authorities.

Membership in the organization is restricted to white Americans who are affiliated with the Order of Maccabees, and these must be in good health and hear a good reputation in the communities in which they live. Fourteen companies have been organized in the various States. The average age of the men in these organizations is between thirty-one and thirty-two years, and £5 per cent of them are married.

General Sietzer calls attention to the fact that the States of New York and Maine, in which the military code is prohibitive of such organizations, have, through their respective Adjutant-Generals, granted him permission to go ahead with organization on the broad ground that, under present conditions, no American (titzen should be hindered from any military training possible.

Permission has just been granted to organize in West Virginia and North dren to join an excursion down the James River on June 22, and from the Venable Street Baptist Church to accompany its Sunday school on its antended backward of Buckroe Beach on July 14.

Misses Laura Chapin and Mabel Wathins, who have been in charge of the school for the session about to close, have been tendered, and have accepted, positions as teachers for the next term. Everything is moving smoothly under the management of Dr. Bray, the recent successor of Rev George H. McFaden as superintendent, and the big family, seventy-two children, is happy and in good health.

Christopher B Garnett, executed assistant to the State Tax Board, ruled yesterday, in interpretation of the law requiring a peddler's license of certain dispensers of merchandise that the Standard Oil Company and similar corporations which maintain a tank and a storage warchouse from which they deliver their goods to a regular customer upon a standing order are merchants within the meaning of the statute, and cannot be required to take out a peddler's license. He is of the opinion, too, that such companies may even deliver more oil or gasoline than was called for in the standing order.

Mr. Garnett holds, however, that these concerns, when they deliver goods without a prior order to any person who may stop their wagons and procure them, become peddlers, and are liable to the license tax.

The fund will also provide for the maintenance of the negro hospital, regarded as one of the city's greatest needs. The negroes now have only a small hospital, located in old Jackson Ward, which is unable to give proper care to the many colored patients who seek treatment within its walls. From typhoid, tuberculosis, pneumonia and other pulmonary diseases, the negroes suffer more than any other race. The spread of disease among them is a menace to the white people, so that besides serving colored dependents, the white people are at the same time conscripting their own interests and welfare.
